Child Support Attorney 101— The Quiz Show

Speakers:

Lara Fors, J.D., Missouri; Honorable Melissa Rossow, J.D., Minnesota, and Laura Stone, J.D., Indiana

Moderator/Game Show Judge:

Petrina Travers, J.D., Minnesota

Session Description

- Calling all new attorneys and staff who are new (or newer) to the IV-D program! Bring your competitive spirit and play along with the quiz show to get a great overview of the IV-D program, performance measures, UIFSA, and ethical concerns for attorney establishing and enforcing IV-D child support orders. There will be prizes!

Run of Show

- Introductions
- Instructions
- Games Start
- Post-Game Wrap-Up
- Tips and Resources
- Prizes!

Rules of Game

- “Family Feud”®-ish style game
- Maximum members on a team: 6
- Number of volunteers determines the number of teams
- There will be five rounds
- A round lasts 10 minutes or 10 questions, whichever happens first
- One speed question goes to a representative of each playing team in that round; then winning team gets the next question and can confer
- The 2 teams with the highest points play in the Championship Round for prizes

Rules of Game

- If neither team wins the speed question, a second question will be asked; if no team wins the second question, each team will send a new team member up to try to answer
- There is a time limit to answer the non-speed questions
- The moderator will be the final judge for timeliness
- The question asker will be the final judge for a correct answer
