Irene Curran - Illinois

Petrina Travers - Minnesota

Jason Ford - Missouri

Laura Stone - Indiana

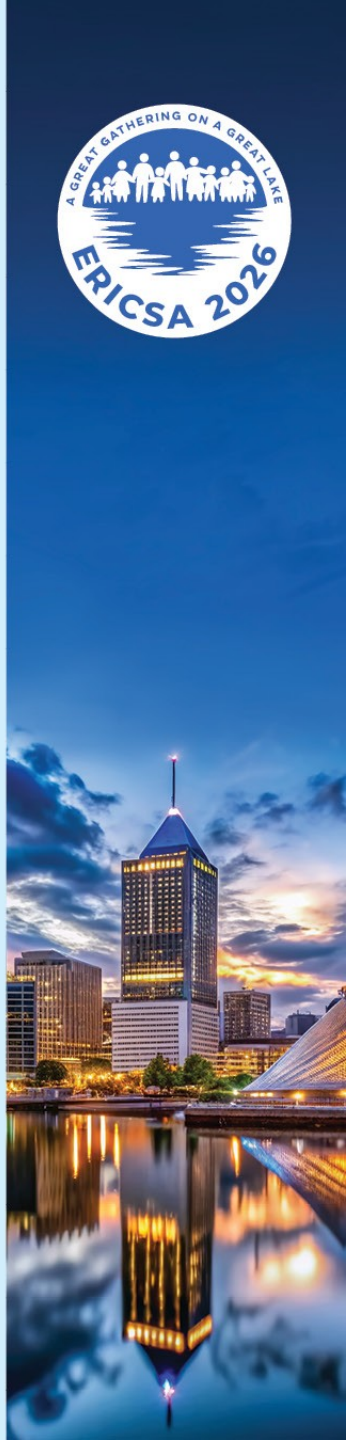

Moderator: Janice McDaniel, Federal OCSE

What are some current issues affecting your particular state in the processing of intergovernmental cases? What's new and interesting in your state regarding interstate?

What should other states know about your state that may be unique or different regarding how you process intergovernmental cases?

Please discuss your contempt/judicial enforcement
process for incoming
intergovernmental cases.

Please discuss your
contempt/judicial enforcement
process for incoming
intergovernmental cases.

Please discuss your license suspension process, drivers licenses as well as other licenses, both administrative and judicial.

Please describe your process when a child changes custody. Are arrears generally payable to the custodial parent or to the child? Is the action mostly judicial or administrative?

Are there any special administrative enforcement tools done by your state that our attendees should know about?

Can you each offer one or two best practices or practical tips that your office has found useful for processing intergovernmental cases? Do you have any closing remarks?

List of Best Practices and Practical Tips

1. Provide your direct contact information, so workers can reach you. We won't give the number out to parties if you let us know it is for intergovernmental use only.
2. MN has an automatic Cost of Living Adjustment that takes place every two years. This adjustment is not submitted in a Court document
