Description: ERICSA presented Views from the Bench in Daytona Beach and Niagara Falls. Now, in an age where people (and lawyers) cannot easily come to the courts, the courts are coming to the people, brought to them in full, living color by Zoom (or Skype. or Teams, or other platforms). ERICSA is no different, as we bring the bench to you. Join five members of ERICSA's deep pool of jurists, representing five different jurisdictions for a discussion of relevant issues. Bring up your concerns with the panelists, gain some insight into how each individual jurist may view the same problem given their experience, state laws and personal opinions. We want you, the audience, to ask questions and maybe even join in the discussion
