

ERICSA Go Live Meeting

12/15/2014

- New Slider Photos
 - Christine - 1, 2, 4 and 7, more tribal photos
 - Elaine - I also like 1 2 4 and 10. But I do love 5 - the joy in her face is amazing!
 - Margot - 1, 2, 4, 7, 10
 - The team approved 1, 2, 4, 10 and 13, make sure the order is not 2 dads in a row
- ERICSA will need to send out a message to the board/members on how to access the new site. Usernames are the first portion of their email address, they will need to click "Resend password" in order to retrieve passwords. The username is first initial and last name, ie "cwest"
- Email accounts were created, we will test after domain has been pointed to new server

- We will be sending you the following manuals:
 - Cloning the event registration form
 - Creating name badges
 - User imports
- ERICSA Testing Results:
 - Firstly, it looks really great!!! I only noticed two issues when I was clicking around on everything. Under the useful links; the WICSEC link does not appear to be correct and the Foreign Language Translator link takes you to Yahoo. – Courtland fixed the WICSEC link, ERICSA said to remove broken link for the Foreign Language Translator
- Courtland Testing Results:
